

DON'T WAIT TO VACCINATE.

Outbreaks of hepatitis A are happening around the U.S., but the hepatitis A vaccine provides a safe and effective means of prevention.

The CDC recommends people experiencing homelessness get vaccinated against hepatitis A.