Vol. 74, No. 12

The report, “Routes of Marijuana Use — Behavioral Risk Factor Surveillance System, 22 U.S. States and Two Territories, 2022” contained several errors.

On page 198, the first two sentences of the Introduction should have read, “At the federal level, cannabis remains classified as a Schedule I substance under the Controlled Substances Act, making distribution of cannabis a federal offense. However, as of April 2025, 39 states, three territories, and the District of Columbia (DC) have legalized cannabis* use for state-defined qualifying medical conditions, and 24 states, two territories, and DC have legalized nonmedical adult cannabis use (1).”

On page 201, in Table 1, under the column heading “Daily or near-daily marijuana use,” under the subheading “No.,” the values for “Age group, yrs” should have read, “779; 1,345; 1,370; 1,035; 1,145; and 1,174.”
